

Hello,

I just wanted to put my two cents in about the no call list in Indiana. I love it. Please do not remove this from us. It has been nice to sit down to supper without interruption from the phone. I also enjoy not being bullied into buying something. Over half of the residents of Indiana have already signed up for this service, so you might see that we really want this help. Please leave our no call list alone.